

“Cooperation and Integration, the path to Government Procurement Development in the Caribbean” Montego Bay, April 12-13 2011

“CIDA/OAS project to strengthen the Inter-American Government Procurement Network”

Miguel A. Porrúa, Senior Expert e-Government/INGP Technical Secretary

Organization of
American States

Content

- Why supporting government procurement
- Main project components
- Upcoming activities

Why supporting government procurement

- Transparency
- Efficiency
- Good Democratic Governance

Main project components

- Fostering the INGP governing structure and capacity
- Training of government procurement officers
- Modernization of government procurement systems incorporating Information and Communication Technologies
- Promotion of Green Procurement
- Establish regional coordination and cooperation mechanisms

Upcoming activities

- INGP monthly bulletin (April 2011)
- New INGP website
- Online course on modernizing government procurement (English version)
- Green procurement workshop (Panama, May 2011)
- Central American Government Procurement Workshop (EL SALVADOR, June 2011).
- INGP Annual Conference (Dominican Republic, October 2011)

These are all shared efforts undertaken jointly with the IDB, MIF, IDRC, CIDA and PNUMA

Organization of
American States

Thank you

mporrúa@oas.org

www.ricg.info