

Gyunghun Kang
Director, Shopping Mall Planning Division
Public Procurement Service, the Republic of Korea

---

Gyunghun Kang is Director of Shopping Mall Planning Division at Public Procurement Service (PPS) of the Republic of Korea.

He graduated from Young Nam University with a degree in business administration, and began his government career at PPS in 1996. Since he joined PPS's higher management in 2004, he spent most of his management career in procurement and organizational planning. Until 2011, he was Administrator of Gyeongnam PPS regional office, Administrative Management Officer and Director of Material & Equipment Division. ,

He was also sent to the Fairfax County Economic Development Authority in the US as an economic development advisor for a period of 2 years. He was appointed to his current position in May 2012. He leads the development of online shopping mall of KONEPS, the Korean government's electronic public procurement system.