“Cooperation and Integration, the path to Government Procurement Development in the Caribbean”" Montego Bay, April 12-13 2011

“CIDA/OAS project to strengthen the Inter-American Government Procurement Network”

Miguel A. Porrúa, Senior Expert e-Government/INGP Technical Secretary
Content

- Why supporting government procurement
- Main project components
- Upcoming activities
Why supporting government procurement

- Transparency
- Efficiency
- Good Democratic Governance
Main project components

- Fostering the INGP governing structure and capacity
- Training of government procurement officers
- Modernization of government procurement systems incorporating Informationa and Communication Technologies
- Promotion of Green Procurement
- Establish regional coordination and cooperation mechanisms
Upcoming activities

- INGP monthly bulletin (April 2011)
- New INGP website
- Online course on modernizing government procurement (English version)
- Green procurement workshop (Panama, May 2011)
- Central American Government Procurement Workshop (EL SALVADOR, June 2011).
- INGP Annual Conference (Dominican Republic, October 2011)

These are all shared efforts undertaken jointly with the IDB, MIF, IDRC, CIDA and PNUMA
Thank you
mporrua@oas.org

www.ricg.info